

The Sanskrit College and University

1, Bankim Chatterjee Street, Kolkata

Observance of 77th Independence Day on 15th August 2023

A Report

Administrative officials, students, teachers and non-teaching staff gathered at the Sanskrit College and University, Kolkata to observe the india's 77th Independence Day on 15.08.2023 by hoisting the Indian flag, speeches, the national anthem and the national song.

Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, Prof. Rajkumar Kothari, inaugurated the proceedings by unfurling the national flag in front of the Heritage Building, and addressing the university community on the importance of diversity and unity in being truly independent. Several faculty members also addressed the gathering about different aspects of India's struggle for freedom and the roles and responsibilities of the academic community on the 76th year of India's independence.

The Hon'ble Vice Chancellor made certain important announcements, including the introduction of MA courses in Pali at the university, and various Undergraduate programmes at the Nabadwip campus.

